

Stapleton Kearns
Seascape demonstration

This painting was done over the course of several hours as a demonstration in front of a class. I used no references at all, that is no photography. It is entirely invented out of my head.